March 2010 Newsletter

Chamber Meetings

Meetings for the Pinon Hills Chamber of Commerce will be held monthly from now on. Previously meetings were held every other month but last year it was decided to hold the meetings every month.

Chamber meetings are held on the second Tuesday of each month at 7:00 pm. There are snacks served at 6:30, so come early.

Bring friends and family to hear speakers every month. If you have speaker or topic ideas, contact the chamber.

County Road News

The Duncan Road/Wilson Ranch Road improvement project is moving forward after years of environmental impact studies and easement issues. The county will begin paving two dirt roads and install traffic signs and striping on Duncan Road between Johnson Road and Wilson Ranch Road, (approx. two miles) and Wilson Ranch Road from Duncan Road south to Goss Road, (approx. one mile).

New Sheriff In Town

There is a new Sergeant in charge of the Phelan Sheriff's Substation. Sgt. Lon Jacobs took over and can be reached at (760) 868-1006.

The Old Fire Station

The San Bernardino county fire department used the old fire station to train new firefighters last month.

Advertise With Us

Members can now purchase business card sized ads in the chamber newsletter for $40 per year ($35 for Chamber business members) which will also appear on the chamber website.
